Description

One (1) full-time position for a Facilitator/Consultant.

We seek a full-time facilitator/consultant holding a BSc Degree from a Department of Social Work, Psychology, Sociology or related field, with extensive experience on gender-based violence issues and strong communication skills. The candidate will participate in the activities of our team at FORTH in the area of gender-based violence online and online safety in the context of projects menABLE, SI4Kids2 and BIA.

Project menABLE will develop three main action pillars: 1. Creation of tools to call out and stand-up to violence through empowerment and bystander intervention materials. 2. Education and training. 3. Awareness raising activities with a focus on gender violence in the digital environment.

Project SI4Kids2 enables the continuation and further develop of the existing Safer Internet Centre (SIC) in Greece, through a national platform closely linked to the Core Service Platform running a range of Safer Internet services by providing:

1. An awareness raising center targeting children, parents and teachers, childcare workers and other professionals working with children (e.g. Health professionals) about better and safer use of the internet.
2. A helpline service that provides support to young people and their parents regarding harmful contact, offensive conduct (e.g. cyberbullying, hate speech, sexting) and undesirable or harmful content.
3. A hotline for receiving and managing reports from the public related to illegal online child sexual abuse material (CSAM).

Project BIA is intended to help children in Greece be safe and confident explorers of the online world. We are proposing to teach the resources and tools of the Google program “Be Internet Awesome” to another 300-500 schools in Greece per year for two consecutive school years.
